Saga 84'

Bloomfield College
Bloomfield, New Jersey

Well, I left my happy home to see what I could find out, I left my folks and friends with the aim to clear my mind out.

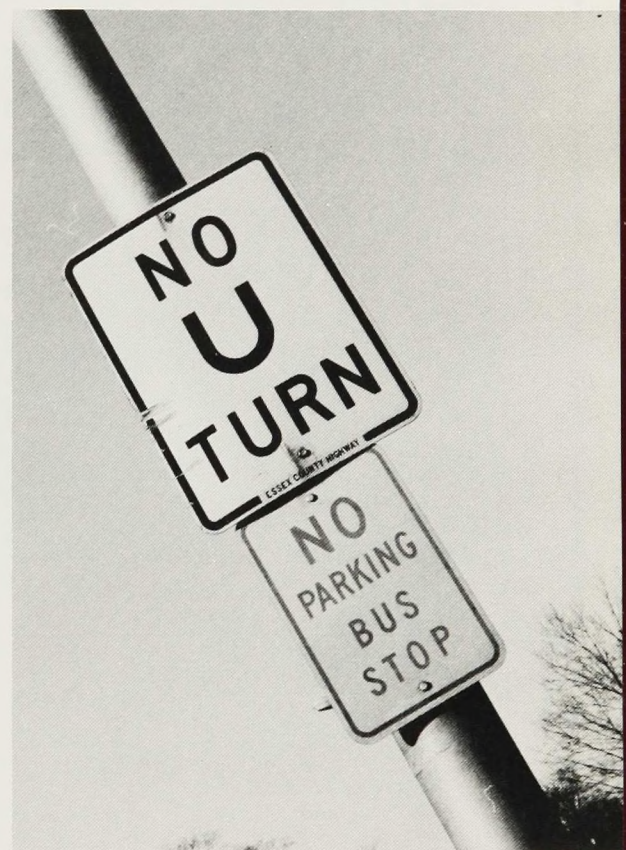

Well I hit the rowdy road, and many kinds
I met there, many stories told me of the way to get there.

Well in the end I'll know, but on the way I wonder through descending snow, and through the frost and thunder, I listen to the wind come howl, telling me I have to hurry.

But sometimes you have to moan when nothing seems to suit yer, but nevertheless you know you're locked towards the future. So on and on you go the seconds tick the time out.

Then I found my head one day when I wasn't even trying, and here I have to say, cause there is no use in lying, lying.

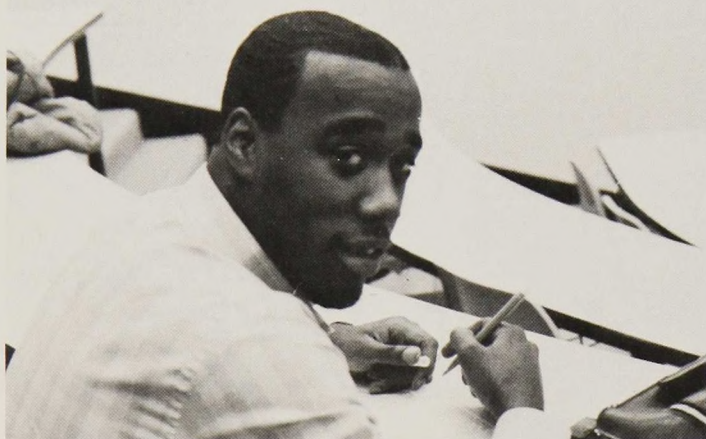

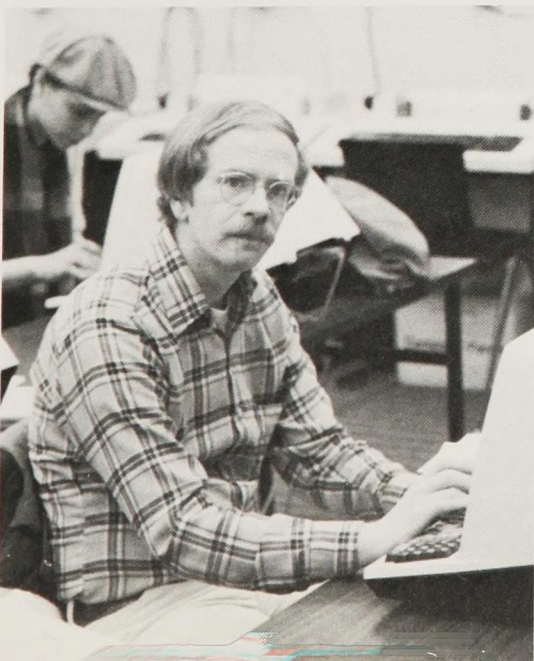

Yes the answer lies within, so why not take a look now, kick out the devil's sin, and pick up, pick up a good book now.

For Elizabeth M. Johnson-Murray,
Who has recently come to our college and who treats the Bloomfield College Community like family. Her title, Director of College Health Services, gives her the opportunity to mend the cuts and bruises but the caring comes from her heart.
For a special lady, for your unselfish giving, this dedication is for you.

Time is not measured by the years that you live
But by the deeds that you do and the joy that you give
And each day as it comes brings a chance to each one
To love to the fullest,
leaving nothing undone
That would brighten the life
or lighten the load
Of some weary traveler
lost on life's road
So what does it matter
how long we may live,
If, as long as we live,
we unselfishly give.

To the Class of 1984:

Congratulations, Class of 1984. Graduation is a happy word for us. It comes from the Latin word, gradus, meaning a step. And, Graduation Day is just another step in a series of steps in our lives.

But to focus attention to one particular step in our past way of life would be impossible. Graduation is not the most important step in our life, but it is certainly a big one. Our degree marks a significant achievement. It represents our ability to accept challenges, overcome obstacles and sacrifice for the future.

Each of us at Bloomfield College possesses within ourselves special, individual qualities and talents. We have here enjoyed a unique opportunity to learn and explore ideas. We shall always remember the warmth and the humaneness in personal relations among the people at Bloomfield College. I hope we will always carry away in common good memories of this institution and its people. We came from diverse backgrounds and for four years were educated by the faculty and our classmates. Many of us look back to our undergraduate years with great fondness, not only because they formed the foundation of our life work, but because they were times to grow, to stretch our feelings and beliefs and to enhance those personal qualities which enrich our lives. Years from now, each of us in the class of 1984 will still feel a kinship towards each other. For though we will have pursued our individual destinies, all of us are one; the unifying influence of Bloomfield College will send us all out into the world in one basic direction. And so we will have a common reason to be grateful for the ideas that established the college and for the caring commitment of the many who have served its mission and preserved its capacity to contribute to each of us.

As part of our future we shall always remember our Alma Mater, members of the faculty, administration and staff who shared their ideas, talents and lives with us. My personal thanks and gratitude go to the editor of SAGA for creating SAGA '84. To all graduating seniors, my best wishes for a successful and rewarding life. May SAGA '84 symbolize for us the crossing over onto a new and exciting road — the road to our future happiness.

Sincerely yours,

Rodrigo Cardenas
Senior Class President

Graduation Doesn't Have To Mean "Goodbye"

Bloomfield College has been your second home these past few years. We hope that you have been stimulated and challenged intellectually and broadened socially and culturally. We are proud of our students and are confident that each of you will make your own special mark in life.

The members of the Class of 1984 have contributed to the overall vitality of the College. As students, you were members of the "on-campus" community. Though you are now leaving the nest, you are still a very important part of the Bloomfield College family. You have a new status and a new role to play as alumni. We urge you to take full advantage of this family tie by visiting the campus often, attending our special events, and working together to help us continue to provide the best possible educational experience for our students.
